Name: Springboard

Sire: Spring At Last

Foaled: February 22, 2011

Dam: Woodland Sprite by Woodman

On rare occasion one finds a hidden gem...Springboard was our discovery at the Keeneland September sale. From a physical standpoint this horse stood out. He had a well-developed hip, a strong, powerful shoulder and a long stretching neck. However, Spring at Last was a first crop sire that was below the radar until shortly after the Keeneland Sale, when his progeny and corresponding earnings exploded on the graded stakes scene. We were already happy with the athletic horse we felt offered lots of value, but now we were thrilled.

Springboard raced over a three-year period for his RCR owners before being claimed on May 29th, 2015 for $32,000. During this time he raced thirteen times, winning three, coming in second twice, and third three times. After breaking his maiden impressively at Churchill Downs as a two-year-old, he was placed on the Kentucky Derby Odds list at 200-1.

Good luck to his new connections.

Spring at Last – #1 Sire of GSWs in 2012

SPRING AT LAST exceeded every expectation as a freshman sire finishing 2012 as the second ranked first-crop sire. Among that crop nearly 10% were graded stakes winners, 12% were stakes winners, and 18% were stakes performers, winning on all three surfaces. SPRING AT LAST was a world-class miler and Grade 1 winning millionaire on the racetrack. Our horse's dam, WOODLAND SPRITE, was a three-time, allowance-level winner by consistent top performing broodmare sire, WOODMAN. She has produced three horses of racing age, three have raced, all are winners.
